WELCOME Pastor Myers

CHIMING OF THE TRINITY

*CALL TO WORSHIP Elder Ginna Taylor

One: Cry out with joy to the Lord, all the earth.
All: Worship the Lord with gladness. Come into God’s presence with singing!
One: The law of the LORD is perfect, reviving the soul.
All: The commandments of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart.
One: More to be desired are they than gold, even much fine gold;
All: Sweeter also than honey, and drippings of the honeycomb.

*HYMN OF PRAISE #641 When in Our Music God is Glorified ENGELBERG

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)

Pastor Myers

One: Happy are those who do not follow the advice of the wicked, or take the path that sinners tread, or sit in the seat of scoffers; but their delight is on the law of the LORD, and on this law they meditate day and night.

All: They are like trees planted by streams of water, which yield their fruit in its season, and their leaves do not wither. In all that they do, they prosper.

Let the words of our mouths and
The meditation of our hearts
Be acceptable to you, O Lord,
Our rock and our redeemer.
For you are our rock,
And yet we place our faith in sinking sand.
You are our redeemer,
And yet we are convinced that we must save ourselves.
You are our source of unity,
And yet we isolate ourselves in every way we can.
You are our fount of forgiveness,
And yet we fear that we will be condemned.
Forgive us, O Rock. Forgive us, O Redeemer,
And show us what it means to forgive one another.

(Silence is kept for personal confession)

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

One: Our righteousness is found in Christ alone, a gift of God by faith. Beloved people of God, believe the good news! Through the grace of Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God.

SHARING OF THE PEACE OF CHRIST

One: The Peace of Christ be with you.

All: And also with you.

*CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE #583      Glory to God

ANTHEM

All Who Hunger, Gather Gladly

HOLY MANNA

*All who hunger, gather gladly; holy manna is our bread.
Come from wilderness and wandering. Here, in truth, we will be fed.
You that yearn for days of fullness, all around us is our food.
Taste and see the grace eternal. Taste and see that God is good.*

*All who hunger, never strangers, seeker, be a welcome guest.
Come from restlessness and roaming. Here, in joy, we keep the feast.
We that once were lost and scattered in communion's love have stood.
Taste and see the grace eternal. Taste and see that God is good.*

*All who hunger, sing together; Jesus Christ is living bread.
Come from loneliness and longing. Here, in peace, we have been led.
Blest are those who from this table live their days in gratitude.
Taste and see the grace eternal. Taste and see that God is good.*

In each time and place there are particular problems and crises through which God calls the church to act. The church, guided by the Spirit, humbled by its own complicity and instructed by all attainable knowledge, seeks to discern the will of God and learn how to obey in these concrete situations.

Johann Christoph Bach was a German composer and organist of the Baroque period. He had a reputation as a composer that was only equaled by his first cousin, once removed, Johann Sebastian Bach. He was organist at Eisenach and later a member of the court chamber orchestra there. Despite his success as a musician, Johann Christoph experienced financial difficulties, which may have resulted in his not having been selected as the guardian of Johann Sebastian when the latter's parents died. Johann Sebastian described him in his Genealogy as "the profound composer," thus hinting at his reputation, not just within the family, but within society. Johann Christoph's Chorale Prelude No. 44 was written for the 18th Sunday after Pentecost and is the last in a set of chorale preludes written for specific days in the liturgical year. Praeludium in E flat Major is the opening section of a Prelude and Fugue. While the elder Bach wrote very few works in this style, they had a clear influence on Johann Sebastian's works of the same type.

Born in Masevaux, France in 1818, Jacques-Louis Battmann was an organist and composer of organ and piano music. His Morceau No. 39 comes from a collection of 72 Morceaux – short pieces in each major and minor key.
