

Martin Luther

In 1483,  was born in Germany. When he grew , he studied to be a lawyer. One day as  was walking home, a  surprised him.  was S +  + ED ! He prayed to God, promising to become a monk if he survived. And he did just T + .

 became a Bible  + . He was upset about some things the  was doing that did not follow what the  teaches. Some church leaders were even charging people  to 4 +  their sins. But the Bible says that forgiveness is a free  from God!

 talked to the church leaders, but nothing changed. So  made a list of what he thought should be changed. When he finished, there were 95 ideas on his list.   + ED this list to the  at the university to invite other teachers to talk about them. Copies of the list were  - B + SP all over Germany.

The church leaders arrested . At the trial, he was declared an outlaw. A kind prince  +  + ED him and hid him in a  for  +  PING. While  was there, he translated the New Testament into German so that more people could read it.

This time in history is called the Reformation, a time when many churches made changes so that they did a  - L + B job of walking their talk.
